

BRATTLEBORO LOCAL.

Street department employees are engaged today in washing the debris and refuse of the winter from Main street.

An especially smart line of tailored hats and a large line of practical hats are to be seen today at Mrs. G. H. Smith's millinery opening, also an exclusive line of dress hats.

The Universalist church members will meet in the church parlor at 7:30 tonight to arrange for the biennial roll call to be held after Easter and to appoint the necessary committees.

Supt. Arthur L. Tripp of the street railroad has bought of Ervin M. Holden his house and lot at the corner of Canal street and Belmont avenue, which Mr. Holden built last year and now occupies.

The men of Brattleboro lodge, N. E. O. P., will have a public social for the benefit of the lodge in G. A. R. hall Saturday evening, April 1, at 8 o'clock. Progressive five hundred will be played and light refreshments will be served.

Only a small number of Masons and their families attended the dance in Masonic temple last evening. Music was furnished by Leitinger's orchestra and the dance lasted until shortly before midnight.

In a meeting Wednesday night of troop 3 of the Boy Scouts, which is the troop formed of boys of the Episcopal church, Allen Davis passed the requirements of a first-class scout. He is the first one of that troop to reach that rank.

An enjoyable military whist party was held in Harmony hall last evening given by the Harmony club. Twenty-one tables were playing. The prizes were won by Miss Fandel and Miss McGinnis, John McCarthy and Francis W. Chabane. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

BRATTLEBORO LOCAL.

There will be a smoke talk for the Holy Name men of St. Michael's Roman Catholic church tonight in Knights of Columbus hall at 8 o'clock.

Protective Grange will hold its next regular meeting Wednesday evening. The program will be in charge of Mrs. Oscar Covey and Mrs. S. W. Edwards.

The Empire presents today a World feature with Vivian Martin in Over Night, taken from the play by the same name, a feature with highly amusing complications. Tomorrow Cyril Maude in The Greater Will, and The Iron Claw will be presented.

The first ten men in the Masonic bowling tournament have been formed into team 1 and team 2, with White captain of the first five and Streeter captain of the second quintet. These two teams will roll their game in a series of matches tonight.

Hazel Dawn will be seen today at the Princess theatre in the Paramount production, The Masqueraders, also one of Dittmar's zoo pictures and Bray cartoon comedies. Tomorrow the special V. L. S. E. productions, My Lady's Slipper, will be the attraction, with special music by the Princess orchestra.

The Woman's society of the Baptist church has engaged Miss Agnes Hersey, a graduate of the Emerson School of Oratory, to give an entertainment in the church Saturday evening, April 15. She will be assisted by Miss Mary Kane and Fred C. Adams. Miss Hersey comes exceptionally well recommended and an entertainment of unusual merit is anticipated.

George Daneyew has closed his barber shop on Elliot street until further notice on account of illness. —Adv. 23-26

BRATTLEBORO LOCAL.

H. F. Jordan will tell of personal experiences on the Mexican border while a member of the United States cavalry, in the meeting of Company I, V. N. C., this evening.

The Locust Ridge Cemetery association will hold its annual meeting Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the district No. 1 school house, and it is desired that all interested in the association be present.

A. W. J. Wilkins' account as assignee of the R. H. Amidon estate in bankruptcy shows a balance of $1,341.17 due creditors, allowing a dividend of 21 7/10 per cent. The total receipts were $1,830.63 and the expenses $489.46. The creditors' bills amount to $6,180.51.

PERSONAL.

Edward Moran is spending a week at the E. F. Evans farm in Guilford.

John Tucker, who underwent an operation for appendicitis in the Melrose hospital, is out again.

Herbert Winchester is spending the vacation at the home of his uncle, George Boyd, in West Guilford.

Henry E. Bond, who has been ill in his home on Linden street with grip, is able to be at his office again.

John Manley, student at Powder Point school, Duxbury, Mass., is spending the spring vacation at his home in town.

Col. Kittredge Haskins, who has been ill several weeks, was at his office in Crosby block a short time this morning.

Miss Louise Mann, daughter of Sheriff and Mrs. Clifford E. Mann, was operated upon in the Melrose hospital last night for appendicitis. She is reported this afternoon to be doing as well as could be expected.

Mrs. Daniel Duquette returned yesterday to her home in Chicopee Falls, Mass., having visited at the home of her brother, George Daneyew. Mr. Daneyew returned with her for rest and medical treatment, having closed his barber shop for a time on account of ill-health.

NORTHFIELD, MASS.

Mrs. Susan (Newton) Woodard.

Mrs. Susan (Newton) Woodard, 61, wife of Francis Woodard, died at her home in East Northfield early Tuesday morning, after a long and painful illness. Besides her husband she leaves a brother, William Newton of Vernon, and three sons, Wells, Charles and Roy. A daughter, Miss Lucy, died nine years ago.

Mrs. Woodard was born in Vernon, Vt., June 8, 1854; a daughter of Daniel Newton. Thirty years ago she married Francis Woodard, since which time they had made their home in East Northfield, where Mr. Woodard has been employed as one of the foremen at Northfield seminary. She was a devoted member of the Congregational church and for several years had been an officer of the Woman's Relief corps. She was a woman of many virtues, a thorough Christian and devoted to her home. The family has a large circle of friends who mourn with them in their sorrow.

The funeral was held in the Congregational church yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. F. W. Pattison officiating. The Relief corps will conduct a burial service in the church and the burial will take place in the family lot in the Vernon cemetery.

Esther Maynard and Donald Crane are ill with bronchitis.

Mrs. Charles E. Dickerson has been in Boston a few days.

Miss Minnie E. Lyman is home from Orange for her spring vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornell returned Monday and opened their summer home.

Jesse Lyman is ill in the home of his mother, Mrs. R. H. Woodbury.

The bluebirds and robins have arrived, and they surely were never more welcome.

Miss Imogene Benedict of the seminary is with Mrs. G. T. Thompson a few days.

Mrs. Welch of Quincy is a guest of her son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. F. Ambler Welch.

Mrs. N. Fay Smith had charge of the meeting in the Barber district Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Ellen Stelbins is spending a few days in Orange with her daughter, Mrs. H. C. Gates.

Miss Violet Lyman is home from the North Adams normal school ill with an infection from a tooth.

The West Northfield school will close Friday of this week and Miss Delphine Lazelle will be home for two weeks.

Mrs. L. E. Smith will go to Boston this week to visit her son and wife, Dr. and Mrs. R. M. Smith, two weeks. While there she will attend the annual meeting of the Board of Foreign Missions.

BIRTHS.

In Brattleboro, March 30, a son to Hugh and Florence (Skinner) Agnew.

In Vernon, March 30, a son to Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Barnes.

In Holyoke, March 30, a son to Samuel and Edith (Candy) Carroll, grandson to Harvey Candy of Brattleboro.

MARRIAGES.

In Wilmington, (Mountain Mills), March 25, by Rev. J. W. Rafter, William Foster and Miss Ethel Birch, both of Wilmington.

DEATHS.

In West Halifax, March 26, John Phillips, 17.

In Grafton, March 25, Lindsay Turner, 5, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay Turner.

In Townsend, March 26, Frank Felch.

American glassmakers, and particularly bottle makers, are enjoying their full share of war orders, quantities of their product being necessary in which to send liquid food to the soldiers at the front. At the same time the industries are facing a dangerous shortage of sodium and potash, also due to the war.

Houghton & Simonds

Four Busy Weeks of Easter Preparation!

Houghton & Simonds's Spring Fashions Are Irresistibly Charming.

Season after season this Store takes a step forward as Fashion Headquarters; each year our position as chief distributors of Apparel of correct style and unexceptionable quality is strengthened. Beautiful, becoming, practical—this sums up the reasons for the increasing prestige and growing clientele of this Style Store. The four weeks preceding Easter should be the busiest of this season.

UNCOMMONLY HANDSOME COAT DISPLAY

Is Now Here In The Garment Shop

It is a season of diversified styles—a season which affords a greater latitude of choice than for many seasons past.

SIZE—no matter whether it be a miss 14 or a woman of large proportions—we can fit you.

Handsome Wooltex Coats and Coats from New York's finest tailors in a large showing. Materials are whipcords, serges, poplins and mistrel cloths. In tans, black and white checks and all blues—navy, Belgian and Copenhagen. Lots of style and swing to these fine garments at $14.75, $16.50, $17.98, $19.75 and $25.00.

Special Wide Showing of Coats at $12.00, of serges, gabardines, poplins and whipcords in all plain colors and mixtures, plaids and checks. Size range from 14 to 44. All at $12.00.

A Wide Range of Popular Price Coats in mixtures, checks and all plain colors at $4.98, $5.98, $6.50, $7.50, $8.98, $9.98.

A Splendid New Line of "Kenyon's" Shower Proof General Utility Coats in Tweed Mixtures. Full cut, 52 inches long, belted. The price range—$9.98, $12.98, $14.75, $17.98 and $22.50.

A Large Showing of Handsome Sport Coats in wool velours, plain corduroys and two-tone corduroys, in the prettiest bright colors—$5.98, $7.50, $9.98 to $15.00.

White Chinchilla Coats—A Splendid Collection. This cloth is one of the hardest to obtain this season. In all white and trimmed with colors. Full sweeps and belt effects—$5.98, $7.50, $12.00 and $15.00.

New Children's Coats in a Wonderful Variety of styles and prices—$1.98 to $10.00.

THE PRESENT SHOWING OF TAILORED SUITS is the largest collection ever gathered in the store. A Truly Wonderful Easter Display.

Mail Orders Promptly and Carefully Filled

Houghton & Simonds

Free Delivery Anywhere by Parcel post

Spring Vegetables in the Market

Asparagus Cauliflower Lettuce
Beet Greens Dandelions
Spinach Radishes Tomatoes
Parsley Green Peppers
Egg Plant, and Delicious Strawberries

ALWAYS FRESH AT

The Boston Fruit Market
AMERICAN BUILDING

DID we hear your voice in the crowd of men that are saying good-bye to tape measure troubles and delays?

Have you made up your mind to buy your next suit or overcoat by the sure satisfaction plan?

Make-doubly-sure—let us fit you in Stein-Bloch Smart Clothes—for 59 years they have been ahead and are gaining.

FOR SALE BY

C. A. McRAE

Who Has What He Advertises
and Advertises What He Has

THIS IS "Mallory" Week

We call it that because we are making a special object of showing, talking and selling only

Mallory Hats

and the more people in this town we can get to look at these wonderful hats and listen to what we will tell about them, and how they are made, the better pleased we will be.

We have the correct Spring styles in the newest colors. If you haven't bought your "this season's" hat come in and let us show you why you should wear a "Mallory" Hat, either stiff or soft.

GOODNOW, PEARSON
& HUNT

